produce. The Furnace Store.

Dr. W. J. Miller left Sunday for Nashville to be absent several days.

Hugh Webb's Market Place is chock full of all kinds of meats, groceries, apples, potatoes, cabbage. All kinds of fruits, fish and oysters.

W. W. Brazwell has been appointed mail clerk between Bristol and Knoxville and is on duty.

The many friends of H. H. Cronch will regret to hear that he is ill and hope that he will soon be out again.

Hugh F. Webb buys all kinds of game and furs for cash.

W. O. Dyer and wife are visiting in Johnson City. Mr. Dyer has finished his work for the Southern at Ipe, Tenn.

For good meals at all hours go to the Star Restaurant.

W. K. Martin does not improve as rapidly as his friends would like but there is no cause for alarm in his condition.

It's miraculous to see two clerks getting orders from phone 55, and a marvelous mystery how the good things to eat are delivered from Hugh Webb's Market Place on time.

Architect Henri Doriot has returned from Johnson City, where for five months he has been employed as architect at the new Soldiers' home. Mr.
Doriot has completed his work at that place and returns to Bristol to take up his line of work here again.—Bristol

LADIES' TAILOR-MADE Garments...

Can now be manufactured in Johnson City, made to fit, and the style and workmanship guaranteed. I have secured the services of a lady who has twenty years experience in the leading ladies' tailoring establishments of the country, and I am now prepared to cut and make Ladies' Wraps, Gowns, etc., in any desired style. The ladies are invited to call and investigate.

This new department will in no way interfere with the line of tailoring we do for men. If you want a suit or an overcoat properly made place your order with me at once.

Society's Realm.

Oscar Miller spent Saturday and Sunday in Knoxville.

Miss Phonita Smith has returned from a visit to friends in Knoxville.

Mr. Bostie, John G. Unkefer's head bookkeeper, left this afternoon for New York. He expects to return Sunday.

The many friends of Miss Lena Barton will be joyed to hear that she is able to be up and improved very much.

Miss Mary Belle Jarnagin, one of Jefferson City's most attractive young ladies, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Naff, at the Carlisle.

J. E. Rice and E. V. Moore, two prominent lumbermen from Unicoi, were looking after business in this city the first of the week.

Miss Alice Mountcastle expects to reach the city the latter part of the week. She has spent the midwinter season visiting in Virginia and North Carolina.

N. D. Kirkpatrick, a well known bookkeeper, has accepted a position with Summers, Barton & Parrott. He came from Bristol, where he was bookkeeping for Huntman Bros., one of the largest wholesale grocery firms in upper East Tennessee.

Frank Miller, one of Johnson City's most popular young men, has accepted a position as traveling salesman with a firm in Springfield, Ohio. Frank left Sunday and expected to reach his destination Tuesday. He left many friends here who wish him much success.

Monday night the young society goers, visited by a few old maids and bachelors, will give a dance in the Elks' Hall. A German may probably be danced, as a great many of the best dancers are very much interested in one. M. I. Gump or W. C. McKee will in all probability lead the figures.

Wreck on the Southern.

The local freight from Embreville collided with a freight on the main line at the Embreville Junction last Thursday afternoon about dusk. The westbound train was being pulled by engine No. 635, one of the new 100-ton monsters, and the little kettle that struck it could only knock the paint off its pilot. Two cars loaded with flour and lard were badly wrecked and the track was obstructed several hours, but no one was hurt.

Wood Working Plant.

Moser Bros. have purchased ground from the Carnegie Development Company just below the Spokes box factory and will erect a wood working plant at once. Material is now being put on the ground and the work of construction will begin as soon as brick can be laid. These gentlemen will manufacture egg crates and get out dimension stuff of all descriptions.
Mr. J. H. Moser is now the agent for the Southern Express Company in this city and will continue. The plant will be in charge of his brother.

Mrs. Jas. Henry Dead.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Jas. M. Henry died after a brief illness with pneumonia. Mrs. Henry was sixty-five years of age, and, having been an invalid for years, was not strong enough to combat an attack of pneumonia. She was a kind, Christian woman and leaves a husband and two children to mourn her death. Funeral services were held in the Baptist church Saturday morning and a large number of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Oak Grove cemetery.

Will Go to St. Louis.

As stated in the American of Wednesday, the State National Guard will likely go to St. Louis to encamp in 1904. It is a fact that there is little more than $5,000 in the treasury to the credit of the National Guard, but it also is a fact that there is another fund to draw upon. Col. Alexander says that armory rent alone will exhaust the amount on hand, but there is an additional fund to draw upon—$5,000 extra appropriated by the last General Assembly.—Nashville Ameri-

Flames Destroy Noddy House.

Saturday night flames destroyed one of the most noted little houses in Knox-ville's suburbs. Tourists who have visited this city have made more snap shots of this house than any other and quite a number of them have carried back to their northern homes as souvenirs, but all that was left of it was reduced to ashes. It was noted because it was the home of Frances Hodgson Burnett and it was there at the age of sixteen she wrote her first novel and several others which have been published.

This little house was the property of Chas. Seymour and the house was never molested on account of it at one time being the home of the famous author. It was located near the negro college and for a number of years has been occupied by an old German by Smallpox in the City.

Several cases of smallpox have been discovered in the city and the county board of health has taken charge of the situation. Dr. Warlick is giving all patients personal attention and all exposed persons are in quarantine. There are eleven cases in the old Worley property and two at W. D. L. Crum-

George D. Prentice described George Francis Train as "a locomotive off the track, turned upside down, with the cowcatcher buried in a stump and the wheels making a thousand revolutions a minute. A ship without a rudder, a clock without hands, an arrow shot into the air, a sermon that is all text, a pantomime of words, the apotheosis of talk, the incarnation of gab, a kite in the air that has lost its tail, a man who climbs a tree for a bird's nest out on a limb, and in order to get it saws the limb off between himself and the tree.
A noonday mystery, a practical joke in earnest, a cipher hunting for a figure in order to pass for something—with the brains of twenty men in his head all pulling in different directions."

WATAGA NEWS.

W. B. Hendrix is in charge of the tannery while L. B. Moulton is absent.

L. B. Moulton, manager for Beggs & Cobb, owners of the tannery here, is on a visit to his family at Boston, Mass.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the brethren did not hold their Fifth Sunday services here last Sunday.

A mine of zinc and lead has been found on the farm of Martin Crow, in the Wataga bend, about 4 miles up the river from here.

Prof. L. M. Warren who went to Nashville as representative of the Piney Flats lodge, returned in time to begin school here Monday.

Miss Myrtle Shaner who has been away from here several years, living part of the time in Pensacola, Fla., is here on a visit to her mother and sister.

Dr. J. W. Wallace, who was sent as the representative of the lodge here to the meeting of the grand lodge at Nashville, returned home Sunday night.

Lula McClure, nee Arents, wife of Charles McClure, died at her home here suddenly at 1 p. m. February 1st.
It was only known to a few that she was sick until after she died. She leaves a husband and one little son, Willie. Her remains were interred at the cemetery at Union church.

make the survey at once.

Notice to the Public

This is to certify that I, William Donnelly, have discovered and leased the richest lead and zinc mine in the United States on the old Martin Crow farm in the bend of the river near Wataga Point, Carter county, Tenn. The vein is about three hundred yards along the river front and seventy-five feet high and lays back under a two hundred and ten acre farm, and there are millions of tons of ore in it and it is the richest in the United States. Now I want the people to come in and help me to develop this property and show to the outside world that the south has mineral in unlimited quantities and that the south can develop her own mineral if she will. None but honest, trustful and upright men need apply.
This offer will only last ninety days from date. For further information and terms, write or call on William Donnelly or Alex. Shell at Wataga, Tenn.

Mr. Unkefer is in New York yet having his eyes treated. Mr. Stanton L.
Pardue is his general superintendent and he is a hustler.

A force of carpenters are finishing the Hospital Group, hanging the heavy doors in the basement and placing catches on the windows, and when the steam pipes are covered and painted, plumbing finished and hand elevators finished, the hospital building may be called finished.

Steam was turned into the store house on Tuesday, a connection being made with the main steam pipe. The radiators are all in place and the two electric elevators will soon be ready to run. The plastering is about finished.
The granite pavement in the basement is laid and the carpenters are building bins for potatoes, onions, etc. in the basement. A good deal of carpenter work remains to be done.

The foundation is being placed for the 30-ton ice machine. The heavy iron tank is being put together to hold the ice and pipes will carry the frozen liquid to the refrigerators in the kitchen instead of placing ice in them. It will be cold storage and will be in operation by April. The building was erected by Contractor Probst and is the nearest building to the Power House.

The funeral of George L. Shaner Sunday was largely attended. He died very suddenly, being sick when he came here, and was not admitted yet, being a T. A. P. man. He served in Company G, 129th regiment, O. V. I., and had been a resident of South Wataga for some time. His wife and daughter were in attendance. The body was brought to the grave in the two horse wagon belonging to the home. The pall bearers, firing squad and band were in force. A great many from town attended the funeral.
This makes the third one to be buried in the cemetery.

No. 2 Barricks is progressing as well as could be expected. The porcelain bath tubs have arrived. The iron stairways are being put up. The end flights are erected but the finishing touches are being put on. A good portion of the electric elevator is in place, with the motor in the basement. Mr.
Kendall has a force of plasterers at work in the basement. The rooms are 90 feet long and 48 wide, a partition in the center about 8 feet high and each side will be lighted with 21 lights in the ceiling. There will be two lavatories on each floor and one bath tub in each. The heating will be done by the steam pipes running along the wall and with ventilating shafts at each end of the room. It will accommodate about 400 members.
